Homecoming & Revival Planned

Chestnut Grove Baptist Church revival services begin Sunday, July 28 at the 11 a. m. service, the homecoming and lunch to be served on the grounds at noon. The paster, the Rev. Dott Bryan, will conduct the morning and evening services on Sunday. Beginning Monday and continuing each evening at 8 p. m. through Friday, the Rev. R. E. McDowell will be the guest minister. The Rev. Mr. McDowell attended the University of Richmond and The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky. He was paster of the Strait Stone field of Churches in Pittsylvania County for five years, then served the upper Essex Baptist Church for seventeen years in Essex County, he was pastor for several years of the Falling River Baptist Church of Brookneal, before accepting the present pastorate, Bethel Baptist Church, Phenix, Va. He is married to the former Dorothy Harris of Brookneal and they have four daughters. The Pastor Rev. Dott Bryan extends a cordial welcome to everyone to attend these services and hear Rev. McDowell each evening.

A NEW THREE PHASE FIRE SIREN, purchased by the Town of Appomattox and the County of Appomattox, has been installed and is now in operation.

The new fire siren purchased for the Appomattox County Volunteer Fire Department replaces an old siren that had been in use for approximately 25 years. It is stationed on top of the Appomattox Hardware Company building and should be heard from a larger distance by the volunteers who serve our county.

Final Plans For Golf Tourney

Registration is closed for the FRCC Captain's Choice Golf Tournament scheduled for August 3 and 4. A total of 74 registered for the 36 hole event and the committee has determined that this is not a sufficient number to warrent both morning and afternoon play. Therefore, everyone will play in the afternoon only on both Saturday and Sunday. Everyone participating in this event must report to the club house promptly at 12 noon on Saturday, August 3. At that time there will be a head count and teams will be set up and assigned tee boxes. If you cannot be there at that time, call the club number, 352-7037, and tell us you will be late, otherwise you might be left out.

Check the following list of names carefully. If you registered and your name is not included, or if you name is listed and you have found that you will be unable to play, call BILLY CONNER 352-7331 immediately.
